Miss Betty was a long time friend of my mom's (Ruby Marshall) they would go to church every time the doors were open. And visit one another for hours. My thoughts and prayers to the family. Seems like when your mother's passed away you loose the ties that holds the family together .

It doesn't seem real in my head But in my heart it does because it's broken 💔. You are the best Mom ever and I love you more than words can say. I miss you so much. I know you're in a wonderful place called heaven now you see the faces of God and Jesus and I know you are taken good care of. Tell Daddy and Jimmy I love and miss them. They say nothing last forever here on earth. I think they got that wrong because I as long as I live I will love you and miss you and my Dad and Brother as long as I live. I can't say goodbye. I won't say goodbye. Like on the phone we would say I love you I'll call back soon
