“ My son and I have talked about knowing Billy and especially you throughout the years. Shelia I want you to know that I do understand you suffering darling. I am so very sorry for your loss, the heartache you and the children and all family members and his dear friends are suffering. I have prayed and will continue to do so. In a little bit I will walk out to see Alice and Byron. Everyone that knew Billy Ray loved him and love you. I was told this and think about how true it is. "Memories Heal Us, Lest We Forget". He will always be alive in your heart sweet lady.
