

DOLPH CANTRELL,

December 27, 2017

Dolph Cantrell, Jr., 75, of Cedar Bluff, formerly of Davy passed away Thursday, December 21, 2017.

Born June 30, 1942 in Panther, WV, he was the son of the late Dolph Cantrell, Sr. and Elizabeth Bowling Cantrell. He was a coal miner.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by two brothers, Charles and Thurman Cantrell, and two sisters Lois (Rufus) Church and Bertha Cantrell.

Surviving are Linda Lee Cantrell, his love and companion of 54 years; sons, Carlos Joseph Cantrell, Paul Anthony Cantrell, and Jarred (Michelle) Alex Cantrell, all of Davy; daughter and caretaker, Sarita Cantrell of Cedar Bluff, VA; a sister, Freda Potter of Premier; granddaughters Alyssa England, whom he raised, and Alexis Montz, as well as grandchildren of the heart Abby Pennington, Tiffany Groves, and Tabitha Tisdale; grandsons, Anthony Dolph Cantrell of Richmond, VA, and Crixus Quinn Cantrell of Davy; and many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life, in memory of Dolph Cantrell, Jr., will be held at the Douglas Mortuary in Welch on Thursday, December 28th, from 6-8 P.M. Friends and family are welcome to call at that time.

Tribute Wall

AN

“ Jarred, My deepest and most heart felt condolences to you and your family as you find your way through the days, months and years to come without your Dad. Somehow you will each find your own way of going on with life by just breathing and living. Peace and love to you, Teresa Godwin

Anonymous - December 28, 2017 at 12:00 AM