

FAYE MULLINS PEAKS

February 1, 2018

Faye Mullins Peaks, 69, of Welch went to be with the Lord at the home of her daughter in Hemphill with her family by her side.

Born October 6, 1948 in Mohegan she was the daughter of the late Walter “Red” Mullins and Virginia Hall Mullins. She attended the Hemphill-Capels School. She was a member of the Pentecostal Tabernacle Church on lower McDowell St. She enjoyed her dog “Polly” and spending time with her grandchildren. She also enjoyed going to her brother Terry Mullins home for Sunday dinner and cleaning his house. She also loved going to the Hands of Home in Welch to see her friends, especially her special friend April.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her grandmother Pearl Mullins; sister-in-law Hattie Mullins; a niece Madeline “Buttons” Horn; a nephew Adam Mullins; a brother-in-law Amos Lambert; and a very special Uncle Rev. Cecil Mullins.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband Ralph Peaks of Welch; one daughter, Patricia Mitchell of Hemphill; a granddaughter Michelle Mitchell of Princeton; two great granddaughters Autumn Allen of Hemphill and Jayleighana Graves of Princeton; three brothers, Joe Mullins and wife Patricia of Hemphill, and Winfred and Terry Mullins of Hemphill; three sisters, Brenda Lambert of Big Sandy, Laverne Allen and husband Danny of Edmore Village, and Marie Brady and husband Tink of NC; and a very special niece Teresa Blackburn whom she thought of as her own; and several other nieces and nephews.

Funeral service will be conducted Friday, February 2, at 1 p.m. at the Pentecostal Tabernacle Church on McDowell Street with Pastor Ola Gay Mullins officiating. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Memorial Park, Bluewell. Friends may call at the church two hours prior to the service at 1 p.m. Pallbearers will be nephews Buck, Joey and Lacey Mullins, Joe Joe Mullins, and Brandon and Justin Craft. The Douglas Mortuary of Welch is serving the Peaks family.
