

GLOSTER LEE GREEN

July 29, 2015

Gloster Lee Green, 60, of Welch passed away Sunday, July 19, 2015 at his residence.

Born May 3, 1955 in Welch he was the son of Joyce May of Big Sandy, and the late Robert E. Lee May. He worked for Georgia Pacific for years. He liked talking on his cell phone. He was a loving son and brother and will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by three sisters, Belva Justice and husband Kenneth of Pineville, Rodella Lemaster and husband Russell of Welch, and Pearlie Rigdon and husband Joe of Charleston; three brothers, Matthew May of Pineville, David May and wife Teresa of Pineville, and Michael May of Roderfield; and 11 nephews and 10 nieces.

A memorial service to honor Lee's life will be held Saturday, August 1, at the Roderfield Pentecostal Holiness Church in Roderfield with Pastor Cathy Stone officiating. The Douglas Mortuary of Welch is serving the family.
