“ Pick was a pleasant man who was blessed with talents. He was a minor league pitcher, a golfer who shot his age or better at 80's, a poet and a harmonica player. He loved animals and was a friend to all who knew him. He will be missed by the Tug River Country Club!

“ Bro. Pick you are going to be missed very much. Walter loved to play music with you in church. We go back a long time being in church with you and we sure enjoyed that. Now you are with Jesus and your loved ones gone on..No more suffering and sickness ever again. Now you are at rest. We will love and miss you and most of all we will see you again..Walter and Faye Muncy
