

HARRISON TYRONE COLEMAN

August 11, 2017

Harrison Tyrone Coleman, 57, of Maylene, AL, formerly of Premier passed away Sunday, August 6, 2017 in Alabama.

Born January 11, 1960 in Pineville he was the son of Frances Goins Coleman, and the late Raymond (Kenny) Coleman. He was a 1978 graduate of Welch High School, and he worked in and around the coal mines the greatest part of his life. He was a Certified Mining Safety Professional and was an unlimited instructor for mining surface and underground. He was a life member of Post 1 Mine Rescue, a certified instructor, EMT and a certified pilot. He achieved numerous certification for safety in the mining community. He enjoyed fishing, flying and water sports.

In addition to his father he was preceded in death by a brother, Randolph Coleman; paternal grandparents Harvey and Vienna Goins; and a nephew Douglas Coleman.

In addition to his mother he is survived by his wife Ruby Hughes Coleman of the home; two daughters, Tiffany Coleman of Maylene, AL, and Brittany Siron and husband Brandon of Buckhannon; two grandchildren, Naria and Brendin Siron; a brother Raymond (Tiny) Coleman and wife Patricia of Montevallo, AL, formerly of Premier; two nephews, Shawn and Kristal Coleman of Coal City and Nicholas and Ivy Coleman of St. Albans; and other nieces and nephews. He loved his two cats Simmy and Ahab and his family.

Graveside services will be held Monday, August 14, at 12 Noon at the Hatmaker Cemetery in Shabby Run, Roderfield with the Rev. Grant Thompson officiating. Burial will follow in the cemetery.

Family and friends will serve as pallbearers.

The Douglas Mortuary of Welch is serving the family.