“ Stacy Grubb, Jason was my grandpas lawyer and three generations of us loved him. He was friendly, nice and good to us. My mom (age 79) always bragged how good looking and made him humbly blush. My mom and dad would've had their 61st anniversary on October 8. She said to tell you that she understands your pain as her husband, our dad, passed away on September 27th. We were all shocked and saddened by Jason's passing. You are so right, our times are all in God's hands. Jason was your biggest fan Stacy. Our love and prayers for you and your family in this difficult time, you and your children. (The Loudermilk's & Puffenbarger's) ~Jane

“ I met both of these beautiful people and their family’s when I worked and owned a beauty shop on Stewart St. Stacey and Jason had such a love for one another even as teenagers I so enjoyed watching them grow through Facebook into beautiful adults raising a beautiful family. Jason was so intelligent and had the best personality. I know he will be so missed. I pray for comfort and love to all the family and friends who are missing him already. Stacy and Kim I wish I had words to comfort you but anything I can say would never be enough. I love you all and am praying for you all!

“ Stacy, Kim, and family..I was beyond sad to hear of Jason's passing. I am so sorry. I was Jason's third grade teacher at Welch Elem. While teaching, I never had favorites, but as the years went by, I've had favorites in my memories and in my heart, and Jason is a favorite. He was intelligent, but even more important, he was kind, always pleasant, and even humble. The world needs more people like Jason. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ This is surreal. Jason was always supportive and kind to me and helpful, regardless of what he might have personally been experiencing. Very hard to wrap my head around this. My prayers for Stacy and the children will continue without ceasing. Rest peacefully my friend.

“ Jason was one of the kids that always made me smile when he was at my house with Adam and Raeann during the teenage years. He was so sweet, polite and funny. He loved getting a joke on any one of them. He's going to be so missed by so many.
My heart breaks for his kids, his wife, Stacy and his precious mom and siblings. I pray God gives you all strength to face the coming days and comfort to see you through until you reunite with your much loved Jason. RIP my sweet friend.

Profound statement I shall never forget. Get on with the living. It meant so much because of my situation. Only Jason could say that and not break a broken.
