“ Clete was an awesome man. All of my memories of him are fun and happy memories. I have so many memories that I can't write about just one. No matter how bad the situation or how bad of a mood I was in, he was there to make me feel better. I will never forget him. David worked for me for years, and I'm grateful for all those times we had together. He's a lot like his dad - a hard worker, smart, and you can always count on him being there. What an awesome family, and I'm honored to have been part of their work lives.
