“ I got to know sweet Jen when I worked for PTI, I took her back and forth to appointments and I knew each time I was scheduled to get Jen that we would have a great time. We laughed and cried together, swapped stories, worshiped, sang together and lord we would certainly eat 🍷 I am so blessed to be able to be friends with this wonderful woman, she certainly taught me alot. Jen honey I know your up there in Heaven singing and I along with many other will miss you, save a spot for me my sweet friend, until we meet again. I love you

“ I am sadden that my friend Jennifer is gone. From the first day we met in 1984 here in Dayton, Ohio when she came up to work for a couple as a Home Health Aide we became fast friends. Jennifer was always kind and sweet and boy could she make some fantastic outfits for me. Even though we hadn't seen each other in almost 22 years. We would talk on the phone or just message each other on FB. You were not only my friend but, the big sister I never had. The Heavens are a little brighter now with you now sitting next to our Heavenly Father. Give Mommy and Daddy Thomas a big hug from me along with Granny Oxford and Thomas along with Aunt Beulah and Uncle Frank... I will miss you and always cherish the memories I have of our adventures 🍷❤️🙏

“ Praying for all those left to miss Jennifer. She was always strong and willing to help when needed. I am so sorry we can't be there with you. Our family is fighting that horrible disease. One day we all will be together again. Lovingly, Aunt Kathy Thomas Family
