

PHYLLIS JEAN BEVERLY

November 14, 2019

Phyllis Jean Beverly, age 70, of the Welch-Pineville Road, passed away after a long, valiant battle with cancer, on November 14, 2019, she finally reached the top of that mountain, while in her home surrounded by her loving family. Born October 14, 1949 in Baileysville, WV. She was the daughter of the late Thelma Estep Robinette and John Robinette. She and her husband were the owners and operators of Uncle Raymond's Do Drop In, on the Welch-Pineville Road.

In addition to her parents she is preceded in death by her husband, Raymond "Red" Beverly; one brother, Roger Donald Robinette and one sister, Ina Marie Bowen.

Forever broken and left to cherish her memory is her daughter, Alicia Altizer and her husband Richard and the center of her world, one granddaughter Kaley Altizer of the Welch-Pineville Road; her "adopted" son and wild child, William Peters of Oceana; her adopted daughter Becky Morgan of Long Branch; special niece Sherry Cantrell and her husband Scratch of Indian Creek, and her BFF, Nancy Lusk and husband Kenneth (#7) of Wyoming; five sisters, Hilda Mitros and husband Dino and Linda Bennett all of Hemphill, Brenda Sopala, Sandra Lane and Janice Harman all of North Carolina; four brother, John Robinette of Keyrock, Russell Robinette of North Carolina, J.B. Robinette of Hemphill and Robert Robinette and wife Geneva of North Carolina.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday, November 16, 2019 at 1:00 PM at the Indian Creek Community Church at Indian Creek, with Pastor Scott Cline officiating. Burial will follow at the Brewster Cemetery in Indian Creek. Friends may call at the church Saturday from 12 noon until 1:00 PM. Pallbearers will be family and friends. Douglas Mortuary in Welch is assisting the Beverly family.