“ Quinto was my dad’s best friend. He was always there for dad and we all thought the world of him. I’ve known him all of life and I remember his mom and dad very well. We would drive up to their store to buy “ice cold watermelons.” What a sweet, kind, wonderful family. My heart goes out to his whole family. We will see you at the church tomorrow. 🙏

“ My heart felt condolences to Queenie’s family and friends! Quinto was truly one of the pillars of the community that I have looked up to all my life! Quinto’s parents were precious as well and I remember shopping at their store as a child back in the 1960’s. I’m not going to fault him none for teaching his kids and grandkids to “cuss” in Italian! Lol I was raised around a lot of Italians and they all did the same thing! May you rest in everlasting peace my friend!

“ I guess I've known Quinto all my life. He was a friend of my dad's and we all were in church together. I had the privilege of serving with on the town council. He was witty, thoughtful, honest and trustworthy. He probably was the hardest working man i ever saw. He was a thinker.He was a good man. Everyone who knew him, will miss him greatly. RIP friend.

“Quinto was a Very Remarkable person. He Always welcomed Everyone with open Arms. He was the most loving kind generous man. He was A very Strong Humble Man. He would try and help anyone and had a passion to tinker and fix things. He loved going to high rocks where his flag stands and loved tinkering and fixing things. And loved and cherished his family & Grand children. Quinto was a Buisy man always kept himself buisy. He enjoyed going out with his wife and grandson Riding and watching his son and All of us ride. He took pride in that and going out to the auctions and flea market with his family. I remember one time he showed me a large village he had purchased and was showing me all the little lights and cars driving on the road. He also took pride in his Animals. He showed me his baby chics. He had raised from an egg. And was always piddling with something. He was always full of life and energy and gave us younger people a passion to live by. He was like a Grandpa to us and like a 2nd father to so many. We love ❤️ you Quinto may you now rest in peace. And suffer NO more. Until we All meet Agian some Day. All my Love 💕 & prayers & Hugs ☐ Going out to To the Family And Grandchildren and praying for Strength & Comfort During this tuff time. Justin & the kids and I Love you guys very very much.
