He had so many stories that would make me laugh for days.i will never be able to make another meatloaf without thinking of him. I will always be your honey bun. I pray that God will be with everyone and give them the strength to accept his will. You will be a shining star in the sky. I never met Jon but I have known Donna very well for many years. She has told me so much about Jon I feel like I knew him and I loved him. I regret that I never actually got to meet him. He gave me a Christmas present every year and I gave him one too. I will cherish those presents always. From what I knew about him it sounded like he had a loving personality and a fun personality. Just the kind of person I would have wanted to be around plus his love for cats. His loss hurts me. The world lost a beautiful soul. All of his loved ones are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My deepest sympathies. Little Jon and I spent plenty of days fishing the Tug River together many years ago. He was fearless when it came to any challenge you gave him.
